PROGRAM DIVISION OF OUTREACH

2012 Convention Report on OCIM

The Oklahoma Council on Indian Ministry remains the oldest Native American outreach council in the national Episcopal Church. Our mission has always centered on spreading the Gospel, educating the public concerning American Indian and Alaskan Native issues, and serving Indian ministry needs.

The Reverend Cynthia Gilks, of Muscogee Creek heritage, was ordained in June 2013 and along with Deacon Bobby Saunkeah, Kiowa, has increased Native American ministry in the Holdenville and Ada communities of south central Oklahoma. To enlarge our outreach, OCIM has established a Vision Quest committee to discern our Urban ministry over the next 18 months, to establish our path for sustainability and to chart a path for future growth. October 2013 will be the kickoff for this committee. The goal of the vision Quest is to enter into regions in Oklahoma where previously we have had little exposure, to bring together those parties interested in Indian ministry, and to strategize with other nationally known leaders in Indian Ministry. This discernment will establish our vision for continued ministry to all Native Americans, to honor Native American culture and tradition and to recognize God's grace in all of creation.

The Cherokee Scholarship Committee continues to oversee annual college undergraduate scholarships for qualified enrolled women of the Cherokee Nation under the direction of Heather Knowles, daughter of long time Missioner Jim Knowles. From the Whirlwind Mission of the Holy Family located in Watonga, Oklahoma, a major focus has been to develop the church/community in that area working closely with the Indian Missioner, the Rev. Jim Kee-Rees, a member of the Choctaw Nation. Recently, OCIM and the Whirlwind Mission hosted the 27th Honor Dance to honor David Pendleton Oakerhater, a Cheyenne warrior who converted to Christianity and was ordained a Deacon in 1881. This year the Honored Elder was Dr. Owanah Anderson, a past Officer for Native American Ministry on the Presiding Bishop's staff, who held office in 1985 when David Pendleton Oakerhater was added to the Calendar of Lesser Feasts and Fasts. Attending from New York was Nellie Burnham, great great granddaughter of Deaconess Mary d. Burnham who was the benefactor and guiding path for Oakerhater. To support Dr. Anderson, Henrietta Mann, President of the Cheyenne Arapahoe College and Ada Deer, past Bureau of Indian Affairs Commissioner along with Kathleen Wells, Diocesan Chancellor of the Fort Worth Diocese also attended and all remarked that the blend of Native American rites and Christian Liturgy hold great promise for future ministry in other dioceses. In anticipation of the 2014 ordination of Pat Gonzales, also of Cheyenne heritage, the whirlwind Mission of the Holy Family will continue to grow. OCIM members continue to support various activities such as Art Camps and Vacation Bible Schools in Watonga. Nellie Adkins of Pamunkey heritage and a member of the Mission Outreach committee of the Diocese of Virginia took part in preparations for the Honor Dance as they have expressed interest in mission outreach in Oklahoma.

OUR MISSION:

We are Sisters in Christ. We are every Episcopal Woman – lay or ordained. We are committed to prayer, listening, leadership, study, service, giving and fellowship.

The Episcopal Church Women's organization is comprised of all women of the church. The absence of a formal, organized women's group within individual churches does not preclude the women in that church from membership in this state-wide organization. The Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese of Oklahoma offers programs throughout the year for the women of this diocese and their guests.

Examples of these offerings include our Women's retreats – held twice a year. In addition to our retreats, programs are presented in the regions of the diocese. We offer annually a leadership conference targeted to the ECW Presidents and Key Women of individual churches. Our Annual Conference and Bishop's Day brings women together from around Oklahoma for prayer, education and fellowship.

Retreats held in Spring and Fall at St. Crispin's Conference Center are well attended by Episcopal women. They have also served as an excellent opportunity for outreach as attendees often recruit women outside the Episcopal Church to join them to experience the spiritual renewal and study offered at these events. Our Devotional Life Chair, Mother Debora Jennings has continued to instruct and entertain with topics and activities very popular with our members and their guests. For our Fall retreat – “Bless the Work of our Hands” many women arrived early at St. Crispin's and set up a sewing room. Our work that afternoon produced 101 colorful pillowcases. The pillowcases with new pillows included were gifted to attendees of the two “New Hope” summer camps this year to remind those campers that they are loved and valued.

Episcopal Women of Oklahoma support many ministries within the state and across the nation. Annually we publish our yearbook. The “Blue Book”, distributed to all clergy, churches, and diocesan leaders catalogs organized ECWs, key women, churches and the diocesan structure. In addition, the women of the church support the greater community including New Hope, Whirlwind Mission, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club and others. This past year, we raised funds to send Hymnals written in Spanish to our sister diocese in Uruguay. Episcopal church women traveled to St. Crispin's to treat the camp staff to a luncheon inbetween camp sessions.

St. Andrews, Grove hosted our Annual Conference and Bishop's Day last April. Our theme - "Living Water/Living Word" gave inspiration for wonderful messages from our keynote speaker The Reverend Susan Marie Smith. Reverend Smith challenged us with a mission of conservation of precious water. In addition, we revisited the baptismal service as Living Water and renewed our individual vows during our Eucharist with Bishop Konieczny. The Reverend Debora Jennings' presentation of "Earth, Sea & Sky" featured wonderful images of water and mountains. Bishop Konieczny celebrated the Eucharist and gave an overview of our gospel "The Woman at the Well". He stressed the importance of the work of women in our churches as we marvel at the great opportunity available to us for service.

Our website which was launched last year has hit a bump as we lost our webmaster. We are reaching out to women around the state for a replacement webmaster who will help us get the word out. In the meantime, Sabrina Evans and Diane Ellsworth at the office of the diocese have been extremely helpful in disseminating our information and helping us announce our events.

It's our mission in the upcoming years to bring more women into the fold and introduce them to the opportunities for fellowship and growth that our events provide. We encourage individual churches with organized groups of women or churches just beginning to organize to contact us and we'd love to help in any way we can.

St. Crispin's Episcopal Conference Center

Nestled in the rolling oak covered hills of Seminole County, St. Crispin's Episcopal Conference Center is loved by all who visit. A centerpiece of the mission of the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma, St. Crispin's has provided a restful place for individuals and groups for over 50 years.

St. Crispin's Mission is to provide a peaceful space for all guests where they will experience hospitality, nourishment and an opportunity to grow in the grace of God.

Under the St. Crispin's protective umbrella, we host a myriad of programs: Summer Camp, Cursillo, Episcopal Church Women's Retreats, etc... are just a few. St. Crispin's unique environment offers a respite from busy schedules and provides a place free from the pressures of day-to-day business, where creativity can blossom and you can become your best self again. On our 450 unspoiled acres of lakes, hills and forest, you can enjoy spiritual reflection and time with God during an experience never to be forgotten.

Working with youth and providing kids with meaningful, fun and life changing experiences has long been a focus of St. Crispin's. A large number of past and current leaders in the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma credit their experiences at St. Crispin's with helping to shape their life choices and career paths. Our youth need a place like camp to escape the pressures of peers, fads, TV, radio, and the internet. Our goal is to unplug youth from society and plug them into God and nature while sharing experiences that will shape the future leaders of diocese. With these goals in mind, St. Crispin's hosted the 2013 Youth Mission Camp. During their time at St. Crispin's, the youth completed multiple projects with the help of the St. Crispin's staff. The most prominent venture that they completed is a beautiful 70 foot Labyrinth constructed from St. Crispin's Native stone. Over 7 truck, tractor and trailer loads of rock were gathered and placed by our youth in an incredible display of hard work and cooperation. A perfect place for reflection and meditation, the Labyrinth enjoys views of both lakes and is the perfect location to watch the sun set.

In order to support the growing needs of the diocese and summer camp, and touch more lives, there is a need for growth and updated facilities. Over the last year we have seen a lot of change at St. Crispin's. We have begun drilling a new Water Well and have completed work on the upper lake dam and sewage lagoons. We have been fortunate to receive a large amount of rainfall this year so the Upper Lake is once again full. These improvements to our infrastructure prepare us to construct a facility that will house all of the camp staff, campers, volunteers and programs, it will bring all of the participants and leaders into one central location which will help provide an even greater sense of the camp community. It will also open up more than two months of dates for use and allow us to host retreats and conferences year round.

In addition to our recent facility updates, we are excited to announce that the St. Crispin's Challenge Course has been operational since January 2013. The construction included elements focusing on team building and personal challenges. The course facilitators present activities in a manner that increases each individual's ability to work as a group, and to recognize the value of their own contributions. Customized to meet the needs of each group based on an intake interview with group leaders, participants are taken through physical and mental exercises that can improve communication, develop efficient problem solving or conflict resolution skills, and enhance leadership.

For those guests who are looking for a little more relaxation in their retreat, but still a little adventure, we continue to provide opportunities for fishing, canoeing and archery. They are also encouraged to hike, or bike, the 7 miles of single track trails on the property.

We have recently developed environmental education curriculum for school groups looking for an outdoor overnight experience. This alternative to the traditional “classroom” will engage school children in camping activities designed to increase awareness and appreciation of the natural environment, science, geology, and ecology. Students will be able to hike and explore our trail system while learning about specific features along the path, investigate pond and lake life, identify flora, fauna, and animal tracks, plus a number of other activities. They will also have the opportunity to participate in the Low Ropes Course, High Team Challenge Course, archery, canoeing and fishing.

Our family continues to feel blessed to live and work in an environment where we can use our talents. We strive to serve you and provide a setting that will encourage your personal relationships, nourish your body and soul, and nurture your spiritual growth. We are also pleased that Daniel Chapman will be staying on at St. Crispin’s for another year as our assistant. His spirit and willingness to give of himself exemplifies the St. Crispin’s Mission.

So whether you grew up at St. Crispin’s, attend retreats in one of the lodges, or have never had the opportunity to stay, we hope that you plan to visit soon and experience not only the beauty of St. Crispin’s Episcopal Conference Center, but see and experience the improvements and new activities. St. Crispin’s is a place for people of all ages to grow, play, and participate in Christian formation in a safe and nurturing community. We will work hard to provide a quality, positive environment for all who choose to attend. Come experience the ministry of St. Crispin’s and feel the magic of our conference center - your home away from home.

Annual Report, 2013

What an incredibly busy and wonderful 2013 I have had! It has been full of many “firsts” not only for me but for this Diocese!

During Convention last year, we had a Youth Lock In titled “Mission – Possible” at St. Paul’s Cathedral, and the Youth led the worship on Saturday morning, which started with a special Mission Possible video.

Safeguarding God’s Children has been pushed very hard these past 3 ½ years. I am pleased that we now have 42 Trainers across the Diocese and over 1,750 individuals have been trained. This is up 500 from last year!

Safeguarding God’s People – Sexual Harassment of Church Workers and Sexual Exploitation in Communities of Faith has been launched. We have 8 individuals trained throughout the Diocese to lead these workshops and have been working hard to get our clergy covered, offering training for both Tulsa and Oklahoma Clericus groups.

New Beginnings was offered February 1 at St. Crispin’s.

Happening was offered August 2 at All Soul’s, OKC.

Last Convention, we introduced you to 12 young people who took part in our year-long program, Episcopal Youth Leadership Academy (EYLA). We completed this program in July with a special event, which you will see part of at convention this year. We are in the planning stages for our next group now.

Episcopal Night with the Oklahoma Thunder was offered in March. We took a large group of youth down on the court to serve as “bleacher warmers” for the Thunder and to “high-five” the opposing team.

Mission Camp was held March at St. Crispin’s. Mike Roberts directed their time together with ice breakers, team building, and community building. They cleaned out the pool in preparation for summer camp, gathered up fallen twigs into a burn pile (and there were several of these piles around) and participated in the Ropes Course. The group’s most important project entailed the gathering of stone to build the labyrinth which is on top of the hill and overlooks both lakes.

Our annual Acolyte Festival is scheduled for October 19 of this year.

We will be supporting two congregations as their members attend the National Acolyte Festival at Washington Cathedral October 12.

Summer Camp was incredible this year. We had over 362 children attending. We were able to use the lower lake for canoeing and fishing. I was at camp almost every Sunday for registration to meet the campers and their families.

We will be sending out a monthly newsletter starting September 1 titled “Back2Camp” using the themes from the deans as material for the newsletter, and it will include activities, prayers, and information to keep them connected until we gather back at camp again!

Amazing Faith Dinners – I have attended an Amazing Faith dinner and have been working with the Interfaith Alliance Group and other denominational groups to bring this idea to our youth and college students. The program is designed to explore and appreciate the faiths of our neighbors and the common themes that run through all of them. We anticipate offering this in the spring.

Vocare now called Altered held its gathering on April 26 – 28. This event is open to young adults ages 19 – 30 and was well-attended. The group has decided they want to have other opportunities for fellowship and are scheduling a weekend at St. Crispin's for October.

Education for Ministry – This program is seeing its first major curriculum change in 15 years. We in the diocese should be proud as two individuals from St. Dunstan's, Tulsa, The Rev. Rick Brewer and Angela Hock, are the co-authors of these new materials!

We prepared a video regarding the changes and it is out on our Diocesan Web site and was made available to EfM Sewanee for their use.

In order to prepare our Mentors for these changes, we held a gathering in June at the Diocesan offices and almost 40 people attended.

In mid-July, I attended training at Sewanee with regards to the new changes, along with some 100+ other Diocesan Coordinators, trainers, and mentors.

We held our annual Mentor's Training at St. Crispin's in August. We offered 4 classes to help provide the required annual re-training of our Mentors.

I have been very involved in the up-date of our Diocesan Web Site. It rolled out September 1. We believe it speaks better to who we are and what we do.

Godly Play – We offered two training this year for this children's Christian Formation program – in OKC and Tulsa. A total of 19 people participated.

Each week, you should be receiving our Diocesan E-mail newsletter. This is really our best way to help everyone stay in touch with things going on in the Diocese. We continue to ask that you encourage your congregation to sign up if they are not already receiving the newsletter. We also ask that you forward to me things that are going on in your congregation, events, activities, and pictures.

This summer, I have visited numerous small congregations throughout the Diocese and plan to continue those visits in the fall. It has been a joy to visit and talk with people who are worshipping in congregations celebrating their 100th year in existence.

Personally

December – I attended the National Happening Gathering in Ashville, NC. This group met in OKC in October and they are making plans to hold the 2014 Happening Convention here at UCO!

February – After living in an apartment for 2 years, we moved into a house in Edmond!

April – I attended the Province VII Gathering in Dallas this year. I had been serving as Co-Chair for the Christian Formation Committee. However, my co-chair has moved out of the Province and I am serving as Chair for this group.

May – Completed my program with the Oklahoma Developmental Disabilities Council Partners in Policymaking. This was the most wonderful program and has caused me to do more and more thinking on how we as a church can "Open the Door Wider" for all to worship with us.

Director's Notes:

Once again, I would like to thank all of our camp-friends, volunteers, and staff for making Summer Camp 2013 an outstanding success. This was truly an excellent summer to have as my last as Summer Camp Director. I and my family have been blessed to consider ourselves a part of this holy community.

Special thanks go to the five Episcopal Parishes who sent 20 or more campers to Summer Camp this year. These parishes are: St. Patricks Broken Arrow, St. John's Norman, St. Paul's OKC, Trinity Tulsa, and Emmanuel Shawnee. Additionally, 43 parishes from the Diocese sent at least one camper this year, an increase from last year.

The summer of 2013 saw the addition of the much-anticipated Challenge Course. Campers and counselors alike got to climb the rock wall, take a ride on the screamer, and conquer the pimper pole. Campers at Senior High Camp even had the opportunity to participate in the full High Ropes team challenge.

I am happy to report that we had an increase in camp registrations this summer. Ankle Biters' Camp doubled in size, helping to bring our numbers back up to 2011 levels. Please encourage the youth of your parish, their friends, and your parishioners' extended families to attend summer camp. The people of the Diocese of Oklahoma are truly our best marketing tool. We do amazing work at St. Crispin's Summer Camp! Spread the Good News!

As always, we are excited to expand the camping community. Please contact the Rev. Tim Sean Youmans if you are interested in serving as a dean, chaplain, nurse, volunteer counselor, or if your parish wants to help prepare staff lunch on summer Saturdays.

Sincerely, Aaron Mooney

Introducing the New Summer Camp Director

Fr. Tim Sean Youmans is Assistant Chaplain and Instructor of Theology at Casady School in Oklahoma City and serves as a Special Clergy Associate at St. Paul's Cathedral in OKC. Tim Sean's formative church camp experiences were at Camp Wyoba on Casper Mountain in Wyoming, an American Baptist Camp with an atmosphere nearly identical to St Crispin's. In college he worked as a Counselor for Kanakuk Kamps in Missouri and, as a Youth Pastor over the past twenty years, made church-camping part of every summer, experiencing a wide variety of church-camp approaches. During the past four years in the Diocese of Oklahoma, Fr. Tim Sean has served as volunteer staff, Chaplain, Dean, and this past summer, Director-in-Training. Please welcome Fr. Tim Sean Youmans to St. Crispin's summer camp.

Deans, Summer Staff, and CIT Applications will be posted to the Diocesan Website the First Sunday in Advent. Come, Lord Jesus, come.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING 2013

The Order of the Daughters of the King began on Easter Eve, April 4, 1885, at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Sepulcher, now known as the Church of the Resurrection, in New York City. The Order was founded by Margaret J. Franklin as the outgrowth of a Bible class, named Daughters of the King, and later called the Alpha Chapter. Within seven years, fifty chapters had formed and the National Order was established. By the following year, 1893, the Order's membership had grown to 8,000 and the first national convention of the Daughters of the King was held. Since that time, chapters have spread throughout the world. Last year, the first Daughters chapters were established in Jerusalem at St. George's Church and in India. There are chapters located throughout United States and the Caribbean, and also in South America, Europe, Africa and India.

In the Diocese of Oklahoma, there are eighteen active senior chapters at the present time, located in Altus, Ardmore, Broken Arrow, Duncan, Durant, El Reno, Guthrie, Midwest City, Muskogee, Ponca City, Norman (two chapters), Oklahoma City (three chapters), and Tulsa (three chapters). These individual chapters decide their own meeting schedules to suit their group. They also select their own book studies, meeting styles, projects, and the frequency of their meetings. Chapters are encouraged to form junior chapters, open to baptized girls 7 to 21 years of age, in their own churches or in conjunction with other churches. Members are encouraged to be involved on a diocesan level by attending the annual Spring Assembly hosted each year by a different chapter, and retreats held throughout the states.

Formation of a chapter requires the consent of the priest or pastor of the church and a minimum of three women who are communicants in good standing in the Episcopal Church, the Anglican Church, the Lutheran Church (ECLA) or in the Roman Catholic Church, and who desire to commit themselves to a life of prayer and service. Membership is granted only after a period of study using our National Study Guide, followed by a period of discernment and prayer. At the end of this time, with the approval of her priest, the candidate may take life-time vows, binding herself to a Rule of Life which encompasses daily prayer, service and evangelism. After she takes her vows, the Daughter wears daily the cross of the Order, as an outward sign and constant reminder of the vows she has taken. Because of our vows, our bylaws prohibit us from raising funds. We may only make personal offerings from what we have been blessed to receive.

Any priest or group of women in Oklahoma who is interested in forming such a group is invited to contact the Diocesan President of Daughters of the King. I will be most happy to discuss your ideas, supply an assortment of brochures about Daughters, and assist your church in forming its own chapter of Daughters of the King.

The Brotherhood of St Andrew 2013 Annual Report

The Men's Retreat in May at St. Crispin's was the highlight of our year with Bishop Ed leading our services and reflections, and just kicking back with the boys. Many men participated in the leisure time activities like skeet shooting with the bishop. These Thursday evening through Saturday noon retreats continue to be a great way for men throughout the diocese to connect and share their ideas and ministries.

Several chapters in the Tulsa area were privileged to have a meeting with two former national chaplains of the Brotherhood in attendance. Bishop Bruce MacPherson, who had recently moved to Edmond, graced us with his presence on a Saturday morning the day before he performed confirmations at St. John's Tulsa. Anglican Bishop William Cox, also a retired Brotherhood National Chaplain, also joined us for worship, breakfast and discussion.

We continue to support The Boy Scouts of America, New Hope Oklahoma and Iron Gate ministries through contributions and participation. A good number of Brothers joined many from the diocese in volunteering their assistance in Moore after the recent disaster.

The mission of the Brotherhood is to encourage and celebrate all men's ministries throughout the Diocese of Oklahoma. We would like to acknowledge another robust men's organization, the Brotherhood of St. Lawrence, organized by Tripp Haggard and the men of Trinity Tulsa, for their dedicated food ministry. Their annual Oklahoma Steak Cookout competition continues to grow each year, and they work throughout the year to support many other church programs with meal preparations.

We look forward to another great year of the Episcopal men of Oklahoma gathering for fun, fellowship and making a difference in the lives of others in Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Baker, Diocesan Coordinator

St. Anselm of Canterbury Annual Report

2013

The Episcopal Church of Oklahoma is committed to the lifelong formation of Christians throughout the Diocese, and the ministry of St. Anselm of Canterbury is an important part of that mission. Campus ministry is uniquely positioned to be a guidepost at one of the most important crossroads of young adulthood. At Canterbury we strive to be an open and welcoming community committed to forming Christian leaders.

The most common question I get asked by Episcopalians throughout the year is “Do you have Sunday morning worship.” And the answer is no, because frankly college kids don't want to wake up any morning, let alone Sunday morning. But should you come by our building at 5:00pm on any Sunday evening you will find a vibrant congregation of 20+ college students from all over the country singing the hymns, reciting the Creed and sharing a Holy meal as well as a home cooked one. Show up on any other day and you will see that our church is more than a just a building, it is the hub of our incredible christian community. Walk through the 100 year old door and you will see students studying in the dining hall, you will hear them doing their laundry on the upper floor, and you will find them debating with the Chaplain about pretty much anything. On Wednesday evenings you will see the community gathered for Christian Ed, living out the motto of St. Anselm, Faith Seeking Understanding, and you will hear our voices and guitars lifted as we do Compline by candlelight. Honestly on any given day there is no telling what you will find, that is the nature of the ministry. Rest assured however, that when you leave, you will walk away with little doubt about the state of the future of our church, and it is one to be excited about.

2013 Annual Report

Oklahoma State University

We cannot begin to talk about this new chapter of campus ministry at Oklahoma State without first acknowledging two important people. First, I want to thank the Rev. Mary Hileman for her many years of service to the campus and our ministry. She has provided a great foundation for us to build upon and her legacy is one that cannot be measured. Second, many thanks to Fr. Mike Stephenson, who, in the midst of his responsibilities as interim rector at St Andrew's, took on Canterbury and served as a crucial bridge while the chaplain position was vacant. There would be no campus ministry to speak of were it not for the leadership of these two. Thank you on behalf of all the students you have blessed.

Ministry to the Campus

- Ashes to Go. On Ash Wednesday this year we posted ourselves outside the student union offering a brief service of prayer, psalm readings, and imposition of ashes. 30+ students and faculty received ashes. We will continue this ministry next year.
- Compline by Candlelight. Sunday evenings at 8PM we host compline at St Andrew's. Students and parishioners serve as officiants, readers, acolytes, and greeters. "30 minutes of serenity" is how we have advertised the service on campus and have had several events promoting the service, including a dashboard Jesus giveaway.
- Wednesday morning Bible study. We have started a weekly Bible study hoping to provide an open and honest arena to discuss and discern how the Holy Spirit speaks to us through scripture. Coffee and tea are served.
- Wednesday evening Eucharist/dinner. An informal Eucharist held at the Canterbury Center followed by a meal provided by a St Andrew's parishioner.
- Sunday evening fellowship. We meet at the Canterbury Center 6PM to discuss current issues, the role faith plays in our public and private lives, and whatever else comes up. We share a meal provided by a St Andrew's parishioner before heading over for compline. So far we are averaging 12-15 students and parishioners for fellowship on and have no reason to believe that number will not continue to grow
- Hosting meetings. Currently we host a bi-weekly yoga class led by a St. Andrew's parishioner and the monthly meeting of Stillwater's PFLAG chapter. We are hoping to expand our hospitality to other groups and organizations.
- Partnering with campus organizations. We have worked successfully with the OSU Ad club in designing a logo and strategy for marketing Compline by Candlelight. We are excited for and pursuing other opportunities to engage the campus and build partnerships with other groups and classes in the form of class projects and other means.

St Augustine/St Andrew's shared ministry

- Canterbury Board members and students volunteer at St Andrew's Thrift Shop
- students joined the Lenten soup and supper series
- several students are active in the life of St Andrew's including serving on the vestry, singing in the choir, lay reading, and attendance on Sunday mornings.
- upcoming events including All Hallow's Eve service and Epiphany party hosted by Canterbury

- 24 families from St Andrew's have signed up to provide meals for Canterbury program on Wednesday and Sunday throughout the semester!
- St Andrew's and Canterbury shared a booth at Lights on Stillwater, the community-wide event welcoming students to town, offering a "photo booth" with silly props that led to 600+ visits to St Andrew's Facebook page. We also handed out coupons for the Thrift Shop and Compline by Candlelight t-shirts. Several people who signed up have visited both St Andrew's and Canterbury.

Ministry Partners

- We are grateful for the continued support of the St Andrew's Thrift Shop, whose $6500 support annually helps offset operating expenses
- Thank you to the Diocese and this convention for supporting our ministry financially and enabling this vital ministry
- Thank you to the support and excitement from the people of St Andrew's as we begin this new chapter of shared ministry. We hope that Canterbury will prove as big a blessing to the St Andrew's family as you are to our growing community.
- Finally, thank you to all of the parishes and missions in the Diocese of Oklahoma for raising up such wonderful students. Please keep us in the loop when you have a graduate heading our way.

Oklahoma Commission of Episcopal Schools

God our Father, you see your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show them that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help them to take failure, not as a measure of their worth, but as a chance for a new start. Give them strength to hold their faith in you, and to keep alive their joy in your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (BCP 829)

Giving feet, hands, hearts and minds to the words of this prayer for young people are the member schools of the Oklahoma Commission of Episcopal Schools. The OCES supports the work of the Church through its member schools. The commission meets regularly during the academic year to provide mutual cooperation and support among the member schools. The OCES provides assistance to the Bishop and Diocesan Council for insuring that member schools adhere to diocesan standards.

The commission is comprised of the following six schools, all meeting the diocesan standards for certification:

Casady (Oklahoma City)
Holland Hall (Tulsa)
Oak Hall (Ardmore)
St. John's (Oklahoma City)
St. Mary's (Edmond)
St Dunstan's (Tulsa)

The OCES is a certifying agency, not an accrediting agency. The OCES strongly encourages all certified schools to seek accreditation and/or to meet the standards of one area, state or national agency to insure quality nurturing environments for our young people. Every school in the OCES is dedicated to encouraging academics and creativity. We concentrate on the physical, emotional and spiritual development of our children.

The Rev. Arthur Scrutchins
Chair, OCES

Native American Missioner Report

There are 39 Federally Recognized Tribes in Oklahoma, and 4 more seeking Federal recognition. The American Indian population in Oklahoma for 2010 was 482,760. This is a growing ethnic group and makes up almost 13% of the State's population. For many years the focus of Native American ministry in the Episcopal Church has been in Blaine County and Watonga with the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes.

Whirlwind Mission of the Holy Family in Watonga is central to many of the ministries that we currently have with Native Americans in Oklahoma. This past summer included 4 weeks of camps for Native American, Hispanic and African American children in the community. Some days we had 100 children in attendance. Reaching out to so many children would not be possible without the Whirlwind Mission facilities, and the partners that came out to work: All Saints' in Duncan, St. Paul's Cathedral, St. John's in Norman, Royal Lane Baptist Church in Dallas, Indian Baptist Church in Watonga, and artist from the Oklahoma University School of Art and Art History.

Our Sunday worship at Whirlwind Mission is unique. The community is primarily Native American, but also Caucasian. We offer a liturgy that embraces Native American culture and the Book of Common Prayer in respectful ways that includes: beaded liturgical vestments, Buffalo hide drum for the altar, Eagle feather fan for absolution and blessing, Pendleton blankets for the rearados, Cheyenne Hymn singing, and "smoking off" with cedar on Sunday mornings before Holy Eucharist. And like many Episcopal Churches in the Diocese we have coffee hour every Sunday, celebrate birthdays and anniversaries, offer prayers for healing and storytelling for children.

We have special events throughout the year at Whirlwind Mission that include: blessing of the animals, Lenten programs, beading classes, host Native American veterans groups, tribal health awareness programs, hymn classes, fundraisers, one year memorial services, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday services, and sweat lodges. Work is currently going on to develop a regular Sunday school program for children with help from St. Paul's Cathedral. We are very much focused on children at Whirlwind Mission and to that end we also supply groceries and baby supplies to young mothers and newborns.

A few years ago we completed a dance ground with the purpose of building community. Our goal for the dance ground is that it will be a place for the Native American community to gather for pow-wows, memorial dances, classes for children, and Honor Dances. Another goal of the dance ground is to host the annual Honor Dance every September. We just completed the Honor Dance, which is a time for the Church to honor the work of David Pendleton Oakerhater, and celebrate Native American ministries. The Honor Dance took place on a beautiful day with dancing, feasting and worship. The annual Honor Dance is the Church at its best: providing a ceremony for all cultures to meet and celebrate our life in Christ.

Whirlwind Mission is a vital place for Native Ministry because of hard work from dedicated volunteers, and because of annual funding from the Diocese of Oklahoma. With funding from the diocese, we have been able to secure grants and donations that otherwise would not have been available for Indian ministry. We are currently working on a strategic plan that will expand Native American ministries in Watonga and to other parts of the Diocese of Oklahoma. Our intent is to develop new partnerships so that we can work with more tribes across the state. We are at an exciting moment with Native American ministry. Thank you for your prayers and financial support as we dream new visions and create new ministries with our Native American partners.

The Rev. Jim Kee-Rees
Vicar of Whirlwind Mission and Native American Missioner

The Diocese of Oklahoma 2013 REPORT ON THE OLDER ADULTS MINISTRY

An overall purpose of the OAM is education, to raise awareness about aging and quality of life issues. The OAM addresses negative “ageist” stereotypes with education about lifelong spiritual formation, as well as health promotion, vocation and volunteerism. Today, over one in three Episcopalians is age 65+ and they range from very active to homebound members. Moreover, by 2020, the high risk age 85+ population will increase by 40%, exacerbating a crisis in caregiving. This unprecedented rapid growth of the older adult population nationwide and worldwide and the resultant challenges to the social and economic system demands responses from the church.

This year, the Rev. John and Alma Belzer attended a last meeting of the Older Adults Ministry (OAM) Task Force in NYC. This task force has ended its work, realizing goals set over five years ago. An ongoing legacy of those goals is the downloadable online guide, “Aging is Changing” on the national website. It includes an extensive variety of resources for older persons and their families, essays from experts in the field, liturgies to celebrate older adults, and over 50 program profiles from parishes across the country, taken from a national survey the task force sent out in 2009. The link to “Aging is Changing” is <http://www.episcopalchurch.org/page/older-adult-ministries>, and the link to videos on aging issues is <http://www.youtube.com/user/OlderAdultMinistries>. To make this website information more accessible to older persons and their families, the Belzers printed laminated business cards describing “Aging is Changing” on one side, and on the other, access information to Oklahoma aging resources. These business cards are given out at Oklahoma’s convention and other gatherings statewide, and at Province VII meetings.

As co-chairs and Oklahoma representatives of the Province VII Older Adults Ministry (OAM) Network, the Belzers were granted a third year for Province VII network representatives to hold their OAM meeting at Camp Allen TX 3/3/13 – 3/4/13 and to attend the annual Abundant Living/Aging Conference 3/4/13 - 3/6/13, which “explores aging as a spiritual journey” with education for developing mind, body and spirit (see www.campallen.org). Participants go back to their dioceses to develop or refresh their OAM programs. Again this year, representatives had all or part of their expenses paid by their bishops or priests, showing their support. Nine dioceses were represented again, but this year several brought their spouses or friends to the meeting and conference. Upon arrival, the OAM network representatives and friends were given notebooks containing a considerable download of “Aging is Changing” to discuss. They also viewed and discussed aging issues and speakers on the youtube website. These online resource materials and the business cards were presented as tools and examples for the OAM network representatives to utilize back in their own dioceses.

In the Oklahoma Diocese, the Belzers represented OAM by presenting their PowerPoint “Aging Is Changing: Serving the Least, the Lost and the Last in our Churches and Communities” at the Retired Clergy Conference at St. Crispin’s on October 8th. In spring of 2013, the Belzers assisted in planning for the second “2nd Half of Life” conference. It was cancelled due to lack of enrollment but it is expected that the conference will be offered again in Spring, 2014. On May 6, 2013, the Belzers again led discussions on the aging module of annual training for Community of Hope volunteers held at St. John’s, Tulsa. Once a week, from May 16th through July 16th, the Rev. John Belzer held morning prayer at the newly opened Primrose retirement center in Shawnee, with hymns led by Jane Burke on piano. This practice was recently put on hold due to reorganization of all staff and programs at Primrose. It is hoped that they will resume programs in the fall. It is the goal of the Drs. Belzer to serve as consultants to parishes across the state in developing helpful programs for older members. For more information, the Belzers can be contacted at jabelzer@allegiance.tv.

Saint Simeon's Report – Diocese Convention 2013

Saint Simeon's Episcopal Home in Tulsa continues its tradition of excellent care for over 53 years. We are the preferred home for men and women of all faiths who wish to live their later years in an environment with dignity, individuality and the highest attainable level of independence. We offer four levels of care: Independent Living, Assisted Living, Memory Care, and HealthCare. Saint Simeon's is home to 180 Residents and employs 200 people.

In April 2013, Saint Simeon's was awarded "Senior Nonprofit of the Year" by the Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits. Saint Simeon's was one of 24 nonprofit finalists divided into eight mission categories – Seniors, Arts and Humanities, Community, Education, Health Services, Self-Sufficiency, Sports and Recreation, and Youth Development.

Additionally, Saint Simeon's employee Teresa Reno also won a distinctive award this year. She was named Resident Services Employee of 2013 by LeadingAge Oklahoma. Teresa was selected to receive the award out of all resident services employees at not-for-profit senior living communities in Oklahoma. Teresa serves as Activities Coordinator, and has been employed at Saint Simeon's for more than 15 years.

Saint Simeon's was also honored to receive two awards from local publications in 2013. Tulsa People listed Saint Simeon's on its Retirement Communities "A-List." We were also named Best Nursing Home in Tulsa on Oklahoma Magazine's "Best of the Best" List.

Saint Simeon's continues to reach out to the surrounding community through various engagement projects. This year, Saint Simeon's joined the Tulsa Regional Chamber, a group of more than 3,100 reputable businesses. This partnership allows Saint Simeon's to sponsor various medical roundtables, which help raise public awareness of the Home. It also opens up networking opportunities for Saint Simeon's with local businesspeople.

Saint Simeon's hosts several events each year that our Residents and their families treasure. This year, we hosted a big birthday party for Saint Simeon's therapy dog, Simone. Simone is truly the mascot of Saint Simeon's, boasting a Facebook page with more than 600 friends. We invited three local dog rescue groups to be a part of Simone's birthday party – Pet Adoption League, Sandite Team Animal Rescue, and the Tulsa SPCA, giving attendees an opportunity to adopt a dog. More than 200 people attended Simone's birthday party, and the event was publicized on KOTV Channel 6, Tulsa Pets Magazine, Tulsa Lifestyle Magazine, and Vintage Newsmagazine.

Saint Simeon's continues to enjoy partnerships with local Episcopalian churches. Throughout the summer of 2013, we hosted a senior health series on three Sundays at St. John's Episcopal Church in Tulsa. In July of 2013, our own Father Bill Holly partnered with Father Lee Stephens of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Bartlesville to present a Grief Seminar at Elder Care in Bartlesville. This seminar opened an opportunity for Father Stephens to continue an ongoing grief support group at Elder Care. Father Holly also conducted a senior seminar at St. Dunstan's in Tulsa in July. Saint Simeon's is always eager to share our knowledge of senior health topics with local Episcopalian parishes.

The Saint Simeon's Foundation hosted its 17th Annual Western Days. Western Days 2013: Take Me Back to Tulsa!, raised $558,379 and was attended by 700 guests. The September 10, 2013 evenings featured live and silent auctions as well as live musical entertainment by Shelby Eicher and the Tulsa Playboys.

Additionally, Foundation Trustees have been successful in a nearly $1.6 million dollar goal to renovate the 5,300 square feet of common areas in Saint Simeon's Healthcare Center. Approximately 55 Saint Simeon's Residents live in the Healthcare Center, which provide our most significant assistance in daily needs.

The nearly 120 Auxiliary members continue to support Saint Simeon's through volunteer services they have offered since 1961. Auxiliary members enriched Resident life at Saint Simeon's with special events, including a Spring Luncheon. Their Harvest Moon Festival, an afternoon of live entertainment and games, will be open to family members on October 27, 2013.

It has been an eventful, successful year for Saint Simeon's. It is, however, the heart of our mission to provide daily care to frail and elderly individuals. Our success is measured in large part by the responses we receive from Residents and family members. Letters such as the following are the most telling feedback we receive as a senior care community:

Dear Ms. Fick,

*Moving to Saint Simeon's was major change for my mother and, honestly, somewhat frightening. She was used to her own home, her yard, and independent life. My siblings and I settled her in and left with our fingers crossed! We soon learned there was no reason for concern. Within days of Mom moving into Saint Simeon's, we couldn't reach her on the phone. Why? She was out dining, playing games, visiting the peacocks, enjoying special entertainment, watching movies and simply sharing the company of her neighbors in the common rooms. Combine all that with the excellent care given by the staff, and it's clear now: Mom's life grew bigger at Saint Simeon's.

*Sincerely,
Pat*

ARDMORE VILLAGE

Great things are happening at Ardmore Village as a result of the guidance and assistance of the Episcopal Diocese and Bishop Ed! Specifically, Ardmore Village has been working closely with Bishop Ed to create a long-range strategic plan. Further, the Episcopal Diocese is helping Ardmore Village pay off its townhome mortgages. Not only will this help with our cash flow, it will greatly improve our financial stability.

Ardmore Village is a non-profit senior citizen's residential community located on an 18-acre campus in Ardmore, Oklahoma. In addition to the 150 beautiful trees, our campus includes 92 one-bedroom cottages, 20 one-bedroom apartments, 16 two-bedroom townhomes, and a 54-suite assisted living residence.

Annual Report to Convention Holland Hall

Holland Hall welcomed 988 students at the start of this academic year, our 91st as a school community. Founded in 1922, the school began its affiliation with the Episcopal Church in 1959 and has since taken an ecumenical approach to our religious and community curricula. Students in each branch of the school attend an age-appropriate chapel exercises approximately once a week for an extended time period. Coupled with religious instruction that begins with our preschool three year-old program and extends through comparative religion in the upper school, students are exposed to a variety of ways of incorporating religious thought and philosophy into their daily and intellectual lives.

We are fortunate to have two outstanding members of the clergy who lead and coordinate Holland Hall's spiritual activities. Rev. Bert Bibens serves as Chaplain for our Primary and Middle School branches. Bert just began his 21st year at Holland Hall and serves as a Deacon at Trinity Episcopal Church in Tulsa. Rev. Art Scrutchins serves as Chaplain for the Upper School branch and just began his ninth year at Holland Hall. Ordained a deacon in 1987, he is currently a senior in the "Iona School for Ministry", studying for the priesthood. The Chaplains offer a Eucharist service once a week on Thursday mornings. All members of the Holland Hall community are invited to attend, and several faculty worship with their children. The Chaplains are heavily involved as leaders in the development and implementation of the school's wellness program and serve in a pastoral capacity for students and families in need of counsel and advice.

Holland Hall's Episcopal approach and the work of the Chaplains serves as a foundation for the realization of our philosophy that, "Every child at Holland Hall is a child of God, no matter where he or she is in the spiritual journey." Several programs point students and faculty toward the opportunities to serve others while expanding their understanding of themselves and other faith traditions. "Dutch for Christ" is a Biblically-based upper school student organization that meets occasionally for Bible study and discussion. EPIC (Expanding Possibility for Inclusive Culture) conducts programs and activities that promote awareness and respect across lines of difference. Other community service programs and clubs include Habitat for Humanity, Amnesty International, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Multicultural Awareness Club, and Environmental Awareness Club among many others.

Holland Hall is a member of the Southwestern Association of Episcopal Schools, and highly values its relationship with the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma and the constructive role Bishop Konieczny plays on the Board of Trustees.

Holland Hall began this academic year with a new Head of School. J.P. Culley comes to Tulsa from St. George's Independent School in Memphis, Tennessee where he served as Associate Head of School. St. George's is a member of the National Association of Episcopal Schools. JP attended Sewanee: The University of the South prior to working at St. George's for fifteen years.

Annual Report to Convention
September 2013

On the first day of School this year, I sent the following message to our faculty and staff:

First days are filled with hope, possibility, life, and opportunity.

They remind us what can be and that things matter.

Those expectant faces and minds open and waiting for what's to come fill me with life and make me breathe just a little deeper, and I am constantly humbled.

Humbled by how fortunate I am to be here among so many who feel the same and who work to bring those lofty dreams to fruition.

Casady is, in the end, a place that matters because we know that what we do matters. And, it's much more than just the first day - it's all the other days too - it's the good, bad, frustrating, difficult, wrenching, celebratory, uplifting, quiet, and not-so-quiet times that keep us coming back and committing to this endeavor.

I appreciate you for what you do and for all of us walking together in faith that we're going to make a difference.

We know that the journey toward maturity and independence is not done alone, in isolation, along a pre-determined path, but that we develop among one another in a complex web of relationships that gird us and support us as we try new things and figure out where we fit.

While we aren't given specific instructions and maps to navigate as we move toward adulthood, we are provided with principles and ways of being with one another that are designed to bring each of us into ourselves, as a part of the whole.

We aren't alone.

We prepare our students with the opportunities to grow and learn and change to make a difference – that only happens within a strong community of people committed to their development – parents and teachers alike.

It's our mission.

Annual Report to Convention Oak Hall Episcopal School

As the newly called Headmaster of Oak Hall Episcopal School, it has been my pleasure to daily learn more about the School. And while this report will give you some facts and figures, I want you to know that first and foremost, OHES is made up of people; wonderful people who have come together with the one over-riding concern – “what is in the best interest of the children?” This consensus of sensitivity permeates everything here at Oak Hall, and I am honored to have the opportunity to be part of this community.

Founded in 1977, Oak Hall became an ‘Episcopal’ school in 1990, and since then, has been fortunate to have the ongoing support of the Diocese. With the help of the Bishop, the Rector of St. Philip’s Episcopal Church, and a dedicated Board of Trustees, the School is positioned to continue developing a strong reputation in the Ardmore community.

Since 1996, the School has been situated in a 33,000 square foot purpose built facility. Educating children, three years old through the Eighth Grade, Oak Hall Episcopal School offers the traditional list of subjects, both core and elective, with the opportunity for every student to exercise a servant ministry through a variety of service projects. A very exciting development is that through the generosity of the Westheimer Foundation, School owned iPads will be issued to all students Kindergarten through the Eighth Grade. The EC3 and EC4 classrooms will each have iPad stations available. The integration of this technology with best classroom practice will allow OHES to continue educating children not just for today, but for tomorrow and beyond.

The School was the first private school in the nation to be named a Great Expectation Model School. We are accredited by the Oklahoma State Department of Education, the Southwest Association of Episcopal Schools, and hold membership of the Oklahoma Commission of Episcopal School, the National Association of Episcopal Schools, and the National Association of Independent Schools.

Above all else, Oak Hall Episcopal School is a community faith, exercised through corporate prayer and worship. In addition to the weekly Chapel services, morning exercises include a time of prayer, and class teachers observe a daily time for devotions. With this said, it should be noted that only 7% of the student population and 14% of faculty are Episcopalian. We believe that Oak Hall Episcopal School is demonstrating the very best of Episcopal education, to be comprehensive and inclusive – where children of all faiths, or none, are welcomed and celebrated as children of God.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL
School and Child Development Program

76th Annual Diocesan Convention

St. John's Episcopal School
5401 N Brrokline Ave.
Oklahoma City, OK 73112

The administration, faculty, vestry and Board of Trustees have been working diligently on keeping pace with the strategic plan. The teams are building the vision of St. John's to provide the school an opportunity to assemble a multi-representative group of people who provide a wide-range of viewpoint, memories and great hopes for the future of St. John's. These leaders are inclusive of the school community, have the ability to address a wide variety of issues, and, with their collective thinking, are committed to compel the school to articulate a visionary plan.

St. John's Episcopal School has taken steps to ensure that the pedagogy practiced in the school addresses the multiple modalities of student learning and facilitates students identifying and understanding their most productive learning process. We are implementing and refining the process for curricular development and the evolution of the educational program of the school.

St. John's is working on institutional diversity. Education occurs within the distinctive social and cultural contexts. Our students encompass both genders, and all racial, ethnic, religious, socio-economic, sexual-orientation, and national groupings. Each of these human dimensions contributes significantly to our school environment.

We have fostered a sense of belonging, pride, mutual support and partnership through effective communication among faculty, staff, school board, church vestry, and patrons of both church and school.

Our Child Development Program is currently servicing 30 children ages six-weeks through 3 years of age. We are licensed through the Oklahoma State department of Human Services. The hours of operation are 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The program offers various activities for the parents to take part in.

In the Episcopal tradition, SJES is committed to high academic standards, partnered with a commitment to the artistic, physical, spiritual, social, and emotional growth of our students. The intellectual journey is at the heart of the SJES experience.

Enrollment at SJES is growing. We currently have 105 students, 6-weeks-old through 8th grade.

Respectfully,

Joe Norton

DIOCESAN REPORT FOR:

St. Mary's Episcopal School
Edmond, Oklahoma

St. Mary's begins its 36th year as the Parish Day School of St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The school's roots formed at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in downtown Edmond with just preschool and kindergarten in 1977. As the children grew so did the school. Today, the campus is located on 51 acres just a mile north of our church campus and houses preschool through eighth grade.

As we begin this new school year, we complete our middle school expansion with the opening of our first eighth grade class. The St. Mary's Episcopal School board of directors selected Pamela Dockter as their third Head of School in the school's 36-year history. We are looking ahead to the process of our Self-Study Accreditation Report.

As a school, our mission provides students with a quality academic program fostering respect for faith, family, others and self. St. Mary's Episcopal School attracts families because of the educational environment, Christian values, and a culture of respect that fosters learning. A spiritual influence is reflected in everything that is done. Christian principles, moral values, and responsibility skills are instilled and reinforced through weekly chapel services (lead by St. Mary's Church Rector, The Rev. Dr. Mark Story) and extended throughout the school program through our exceptional service learning program, religious studies, classroom activities and special events.

SMES is committed to developing students who have compassionate hearts and will become active, contributing citizens to our community and nation. St. Mary's is the only private school in Edmond that offers stimulating enrichment experiences in the areas of science, music, fine arts, Spanish, technology skills, service learning and a before and after school program for children of all levels.

St. Mary's School is an accredited and active member of the Southwestern Association of Episcopal Schools and values its relationship with the diocese through membership in the Oklahoma Commission of Episcopal Schools.
